

Al-Zahrawi University College on-campus or local health and wellbeing services

The campus of Al-Zahrawi University college involves a large dentistry clinic that provides free dentistry services to publics while training dentistry students. Also, the college have on-campus clinic to provide urgent medical intervention and advise when needed. Our future plans do involve the establishment of a general hospital as a requirement to open human medicine department, the construction of this hospital has reached an advanced stage.