

Al-Zahrawi University College sustainable procurement and purchasing policy

- Environmental responsibility: Al-Zahrawi University College will prefer the procurement of services that reduce environmental impact, increase resource efficiency, and support the change to a low-carbon environment.
- Regulatory compliance: Al-Zahrawi University College is obligated to complying with all laws, regulations, and standards related to procurement and sustainability.
- Department heads: Responsible for implementing sustainability standards into departmental procurement decisions.
- Monitoring and review: Al-Zahrawi University College will always monitor and review their procurement practices to evaluate compliance with the sustainable procurement policy.
- Training: Al-Zahrawi University College will provide training programs to educate staff and students on sustainability principles and practices.