

Al-Zahrawi University College support of holistic ethical organizational culture

Our college is dedicated to promote the holistic ethical organizational culture, this is clearly evident by our commitment to inclusivity, diversity, and ethical conduct across the society. We provide equal opportunities and support to all staff and students regardless of their religious or region. Also, the college leadership is demonstrating integrity, transparency, and accountability in their actions. Through open communication with stakeholders, the college builds trust in its leadership. Moreover, the college promotes inclusive decision-making processes by involving diverse perspectives and ideas in policy development and strategic planning. Finally, the college is actively involved in many religious and social festivals.
